Continuation of Identification of prior art discussed:

- 1) Crooks US-2,314,481 shows a strip of fasteners capable of being bent having same dimensions.
- 2) Le Gay US-324,126 shows a 40% short/long leg ratio, and 80% 2d prong length/bridge ratio.
- 3) Doan US-717,554 shows a fastener of similar dimensions.

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed:

- 1) Crooks anticipation over 1) leg length ratio and 2) short leg/bridge portion length ratio. Applicant deemed leg length ratio of Crooks to be 19%, and therefore different than 'about 25%'.
- 2) Lack of structure from intended use statement in claim preamble.
- 3) Possibility of considering the combination of the fastener with wire lath.
- 4) Discussion over whether replacing 'about 75% and about 99%' with 'at least 75%' constitutes new matter. It was found that the applicant's originally filed drawings supported that the second prong could be slightly longer than 99% of the bridge portion to allow the end of the prong to touch the first prong, and still allow for some bending length, while not departing from the scope of the claim.
